

At nFUZION, we specialize in pairing the best candidates with the best companies. Our team of information technology recruiters find talented technical professionals and identify opportunities that best suit their skills and experience. For our clients seeking IT staffing, we offer contract, contract to hire, and direct hire solutions. When a company hires the wrong person, the consequences can be problematic. Restarting the hiring process following an incorrect hire forces a company to far exceed the budget they initially devoted to hiring. A bad hire can also negatively affect the team morale and culture you've worked so hard to build, and the additional resources you spend finding the replacement employee can slow production to a crawl.

Information Technology Recruiting

We've been staffing IT professionals since 2005. Over that time, we've provided businesses with a wide range of IT candidates. Below is a small list of some of the positions for which we recruit:

- Software Developer/Architect (C#, Java, PHP, etc.)
- Project Manager
- Scrum Master
- Database Administrator
- Mobile Developer
- Business Intelligence Developer/Architect
- Helpdesk and Cable Technicians
- Information Security Engineer
- Business Analyst
- Network Administrator/Engineer
- Cloud Developer/Architect
